

Round 4 - Race 2
Incident #	Drivers involved	Description of the incident	Stewards verdict	Penalty summary
1	Leonard Karten	Karten leaving far too much space beginning with the penultimate corner.	Disadvantage of opponents. Karten focuses on the car to his right instead of to the car in front, which is an individual mistake regarding the rulebook.	Karten: 1 Strike, +5s
2	Marko Pejic	Pejic speeding in double file which increases the gap behind to Ottaviani.	Speeding in double file with individual benefit.	Pejic: half-pen, +3s
3	Jeffry Rietveld, Kevin Siggy, Marcel Csincsik	Csincsik is too quick into T1, understeers and can't keep his racing line, collides with Rietveld on the outside, bounces back to the inside, where Siggy has no chance to avoid the contact. Csincsik spins and causes a larger carnage behind involving many other cars.	Csincsik causes mainly a disadvantage for himself, the carnage behind is a result where he has no active influence on. While spinning he is failing to apply the brakes.	Csincsik: half-pen, +3s
4	Kevin Siggy, Christopher Högfeldt, Leonard Krippner	Siggy not leaving enough space exiting T1, pushing Högfeldt off the track. Högfeldt loses momentum in the gravel and Krippner doesn't react in time to avoid the collision. Högfeldt spins and loses multiple positions.	Siggy not leaving enough space with disadvantage of opponent. Krippner had no chance to react in time.	Siggy: 1. Strike, +5s
5	Marcell Csincsik, Jack Keithley, Jakub Brzezinski	Brezinski is completely jammed by other cars and is applying the brakes occasionally. No further action. Keithley releases the brake completely after spinning but does not impede any other driver. Csincsik was penalized in the report above.		Brezinski: None Keithley: half-pen, +3s
6	Philipp Drayss	Spinning and not applying the brakes and hitting Bonito (without major disadvantage).		Drayss: half-pen, +3s
7	Erhan Jajovski, Alessandro Ottaviani, Jiri Toman, Leonard Krippner	All of the drivers keep pushing the cars in front, not trying to deescalate the dangerous situation. (comparison: penalty for Krippner, Nürburgring / Race 2, L1) Toman is creating a another dangerous situation, pushing Csincsik into Gillisen.	Difficult to judge if drivers really pushing the cars in front. Partially they are also hitting the brakes and are pushed from behind due to chain reaction. No further action.	None
8	Christian Michel	Crossed white line at pit exit	Not impeding anyone but gaining a little advantage	Michel: half pen, +3s
9	Gianmarco Fiduci	Crossed white line at pit exit	Only touching the line, not crossing	None
10	Isaac Gillissen	Crossed white line at pit exit	Not impeding anyone but gaining a little advantage	Gillissen: half pen, +3s
11	Leon Rüdinger	Crossed white line at pit exit	Not impeding anyone but gaining a little advantage	Rüdinger: half pen, +3s
12	Enzo Bonito	Crossed white line at pit exit	Only touching the line, not crossing	None
13	Leonard Krippner	Crossed white line at pit exit	Not impeding anyone but gaining a little advantage	Krippner: half pen, +3s
14	Leandro Werle	Crossed white line at pit exit	Not impeding anyone but gaining a huge advantage by crossing both lines at pit exit (therefore cutting the track), track-limit infringements to gain an advantage.	Werle: 1 Strike, +5s
15	Remi Delorme, Jiri Toman	Toman still has an overlap on exit of the Omega and keeps his line. Mistake by Delorme.		None
